Another Sensation in the Brady Case.

His Lawyers Apologize to the Ladies
So Savagely Assailed.

Mrs. Hester and Mrs. Ackerman Are Fully Vindicated.

The Case Taken Under Adversity by Justice As-tins—The Defense's Flimsy Showing on the Home Struck—Cut Short.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning, the time set for the continuance of the Brady burglary case, the large crowd of spectators

the proceedings by the outside public. Mrs. Hester and Mrs. Ackerman were the first on the scene, closely followed by the defendant, with his counsel. In addition, the counsel already retained to assist Deputy District Attorney Dunlap, Mr. Joseph J. Connelley, city solicitor, was present to look after the interests of some outside parties, who were connected with the case as witnesses for the prosecution.

Previous to the reopening of the case, Mr. Gage called the attention of the Court to the fact that in its report of the trial, it had quoted Mrs. Hester as having called Mrs. Hester "a horrible liar." Now, while he did not deny using the language, he said that he had not intended to say in relation to the argument of Mr. Dawson, in which that gentleman stated that if the witness, Moore, said that he had told him so, it would not be stating the fact with

Then," said Mrs. Gage, sotto voce, "Mrs. Heister is a horrible liar."

She had taken their respective positions, the defense called the defendant.

M. W. BRADY,

to the stand. He was in this sworn and testified: I am a detective in the city of Portland. I have no occupation, but am a suspended detective. I have resided in this county about four months. I came here from Portland, Or. I was here about five months ago and remained here some time. On November 17th last I was dressed differently from what I now am. Four or five days after that date I put on the suit and coat I now wear. I have been in the city I had ordered from Simpson & McIntosh some time in last October. I think that I have been in the city about a month and 21st. I was not present at the Sencot block at the time it is alleged I committed a burglary there. I did not have anything anything about it at that time.

Mr. Duniap: I don't care to ask the witness any questions.

Mr. Gage: May I please the Court, the defendant rests. (To the opposing counsel.)

Mr. Duniap: Are you going to argue the case?

Mr. Gage: Do you rest? The proposition to be first considered is whether the testimony is all in or not, then we will discuss the question of submitting without a jury.

The Court then declared a recess till 6 o'clock p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

On the reopener of the parties to the case after recess, counsel on both sides held a short but earnest conference, when it was decided that both sides should rest.

Mr. Gage then addressed the Court and said: May I please your Honor, I desire to state that in the taking of the testimony in this case, some things have Hester and Mrs. Ackerman, the ladies involved in this case. I am now only a pleasure seeker, and I am glad to see these remarks were occasioned by the mistaken identity of the witnesses. The son who so misinformed the counsel of the case, was a young man, who was himself, therefore, we are pleased to learn, unimpaired by stating that these ladies could not be in the case without slighting on their characters. As to the other two people against Brady, we are satisfied the alibi has been distinctly proven. If convicted, they will be hanged. If not willing to submit the case to your Honor without argument, we are glad to do so, more especially as the case has already been submitted at the time the case was before Justice Austin then announced that would reserve his decision until 9 o'clock tomorrow.

Shortly after coming to this determination, by request of the counsel on either side, Justice Austin, accompanied by the clerk, returned to the court room.

The Brute Who Insults Ladies Agrees to Work.

At 6:30 o'clock last night the frantic cry of a woman attracted a big crowd to a little court which leads off of South Main street at No. 7. It seems that Mrs. Simon, who keeps a room where gentlemen's clothes are cleaned, was hard at work when a well-dressed man entered the room and asked if the "dress" was home. "Where?" asked him to "send" and about to ask him his business, when he became very insulting. She ran out of the room and called for assistance. A gentleman who occupies a room near by was

He knocked one or persons down, when Mrs. Shannon came in and saw the man acting so grossly. As soon as the man heard while he ran out of the alley and saw the crowd and blew a police whistle. The man did not put in an appearance until it was too late, and he made good his escape. Fort street needs a little looking after for the crowd and blow a police whistle. The man did not put in an appearance until it was too late, and he made good his escape.

Escape from the Chaingang
Tom Matthews and Henry Wilson escaped from the chaingang yesterday morning. The gang had just gone to work, and Matthews and Wilson were sent by the warden to the water tank to get water. The usual time, when a man is sent to the water tank, but they had gained too great a start.

Wants a Communion.
Charles H. Edmunds has brought against J. B. De Turk for commission securing a purchaser for certain real estate known as De Turk's lively stable, situated at the northwest corner of Fort and streets. Edmunds claims that according to agreement he was to receive five per cent. on the amount of the sale, but making the commission in the transaction amount to $2500.

BUSINESS.

OFFICE OF THE TREASURER.
LOS ANGELES, Tuesday, Dec. 20.
Dullness continues the prevailing feature in the grain trade at the principal markets, and little activity is probable until after the holidays.

Considerable poultry is due in this city during the next few days. Among other lots, a carload, containing 17,000 pounds of dressed turkeys, is expected from Kansas on Friday.

Six California Wheat vessels arrived at ports in Great Britain on the 15th with 571,830 centals of wheat, and seven more arrived on the 16th with 348,560 centals of wheat. Three of these left here on the same day, making the trip in 135 days. These were the Benella, Denbighshire and Turkistan. The Scottish Admiral took 147 days; Lord Dufferin, 136 days; British Isles, 132 days, and P. C. Peterson, 130 days. The dropping of 30,000 tons of California Wheat on the English market in the space of 48 hours is no insignificant item. The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the grain situation, has the following:

"English Wheat is weaker and ruling prices are lower. Sales of English Wheat during the week were 64,944 quarters at 51s. 3d. against 53s. 3d. 4d. during the corresponding period last year. Flour was dull. The foreign wheat trade is further depressed. Indian and Russian have declined in, without buyers. At Liverpool there has been a fall of 3d. per cental. Corn and Oats are 3d. cheaper, linned is lower. Twenty cargoes of Wheat arrived; two were sold, five withdrawn and five remained. Today the tone of the wheat trade was somewhat improved. English Wheat (white) was firm, though nominally unchanged. Flour was 3d. lower. Corn recovered 3d. Oats were 3d. cheaper on the week. Beans and Peas were unchanged."

New York, Dec. 20.—Money on call easy at 4 1/4 to 4 1/2; loan 4 1/2; closed at 4 1/4 1/2.

Prime mercantile paper 7 1/4.
Governments dull but steady.
Sterling exchange, quiet but steady at 4.87 1/2 for 90-day bills; 4.85 for demand.
New York, Dec. 20.—The stock market was duller today than on any previous day of the year, and transactions for the most part were without character or significance. Fluctuations were confined to a few stocks. The market was less than 1/4 per cent below the extreme prices of the day. The opening was rather heavy and some shades of small transactions, but the list soon rallied. Union Pacific was weak, but the rally was not sufficient to change the closing prices, which show irregular changes, but the only important difference is in Reading, which is up 1/4 per cent.
